A Word From Our Chairman

Happy Sesquicentennial Year!! I do hope everyone had a happy and enjoyable Christmas.

The Grange Corridor project is in production and, I hope, will be installed in time for the opening of Sesquicentennial celebrations early March. Liz Addison has many exciting thoughts surrounding the opening of the corridor - I will keep you informed.

You will also be pleased to know a method has been discovered whereby Security can man The Grange front door during the summer months, (May 24 through Thanksgiving). The gardens will be planted and it will certainly add to the visitor's enjoyment of The Grange. Our thanks to Mr. Walford and Mr. Vecchio.

Kudos to ALL who made Celebration weekend such an outstanding success and to Jean Gray, Costume Chairman, and her helpers for the sensational boutique items. Mary Aziz reported we grossed close to $2,000.00.

In the continuing interest of security in the house and in the sewing room, the key to the sewing room will be kept in the office in the care of Janet Hodapp. Jean Gray is concerned at the number of aprons that have disappeared, so we have to limit access.

Please remember when locking 'Library' to bolt the bottom of the door.

Your Chairman will be away in England and Kenya from February 6th through March. Flora Agnew will be in charge in my absence.-KF
